Key points about agency include:

- The agent acts for the principal in dealings with third parties.
- The principal is bound by the acts of the agent within the scope of authority.
- Agency relationships are based on consent, either express or implied.

Legal Framework of Agency

The law recognizes agency relationships as creating rights and obligations between involved parties. The legal principles governing agency are derived from common law and statutory provisions, which outline the scope and limits of an agent's authority.

1. Express Agency

- Created explicitly through written or oral agreement.
- The principal explicitly authorizes the agent to act on their behalf.

2. Implied Agency

- No explicit agreement but inferred from actions.

3. Agency by Ratification

- Occurs when a principal approves an unauthorized act after it has been performed.

4. Agency by Necessity

- Established when immediate action is required to prevent loss or damage.
- Usually arises in emergency situations where prior consent isn't possible.

5. Agency by Estoppel

- Occurs when a principal's conduct leads third parties to believe an agency exists.
- The principal is estopped from denying the agency relationship.

Formation and Creation of Agency

Understanding how an agency relationship is formed is critical. Cheema emphasizes the following methods:

- Apparent Authority: Arises when the principal's conduct leads third parties to believe the agent has authority.
- Inherent Authority: Implied by the nature of the agent's position, even if not expressly granted.

Scope and Limitations

- Agents must operate within their authority.
- Unauthorized acts can lead to liabilities for the agent and sometimes the principal.

Liabilities and Duties in Agency Relationships

Chapter 28 highlights the responsibilities and liabilities of both agents and principals.

Agents' Duties

- Duty to perform with reasonable care.

- Duty to act in the best interest of the principal.

Principals' Duties

- Duty to provide necessary information.
- Duty to cooperate.

Liabilities for Third Parties

- Agents may be personally liable if acting outside their authority or illegally.

Termination of Agency

The agency relationship can be terminated through various means, which Cheema discusses thoroughly:

Methods of Termination

- By Agreement: Mutual consent or expiration of stipulated period.
- By Conduct: Revocation by the principal or renunciation by the agent.
- By Operation of Law: Death, insanity, bankruptcy of either party, or impossibility of performance.
