Historical Context of the GT40 Development

The GT40 project was born out of a fierce rivalry between American automakers, notably Ford, and European racing stalwarts like Ferrari. Initiated in the early 1960s, Ford aimed to break Ferrari's dominance at the 24 Hours of Le Mans, leading to the development of a revolutionary race car designed for endurance racing. The project culminated in the creation of several chassis, each with unique characteristics, but the most famous being the GT40—so named because of its initial height of 40 inches.
