Historical Context and Development of the 2013 Rental Agreement

Background of Hawaii's Rental Market

Hawaii's rental market has long been characterized by high demand, limited supply, and unique legal considerations stemming from its island geography and demographic makeup. The influx of both residents and seasonal visitors, coupled with a significant proportion of vacation rentals, has created a complex environment where tenants and landlords navigate diverse expectations and regulatory frameworks.

Prior to 2013, rental agreements in Hawaii were often governed by a patchwork of state laws, county ordinances, and individual lease terms. This sometimes resulted in ambiguity, disputes, and a lack of consistency. Recognizing these issues, the Hawaii Realtors Association sought to develop a standardized model that could serve as a reliable reference and promote best practices across the industry.

Development of the 2013 Model Agreement

The 2013 rental agreement was the product of collaborative efforts among real estate professionals, legal experts, and consumer advocates associated with the Hawaii Realtors Association.
