Student Centred Learning in Uganda: The Mwalimu Open Educational Resource

In recent years, Uganda has seen a transformative shift in its educational landscape, emphasizing innovative teaching methods that prioritize the needs, interests, and active participation of students. At the forefront of this movement is the concept of student centred learning, a pedagogical approach that fosters critical thinking, creativity, and independence among learners. Complementing this approach is the advent of the Mwalimu Open Educational Resource (OER), a digital platform designed to enhance access to quality educational materials tailored to Uganda's unique context. Together, student centred learning and the Mwalimu OER are revolutionizing education in Uganda, making learning more inclusive, engaging, and effective.

Understanding Student Centred Learning in Uganda

Student centred learning (SCL) shifts the traditional teacher-led classroom to one where students actively participate in their own educational journey. In Uganda, this approach is gaining momentum as educators and policymakers recognize its potential to improve student outcomes, especially in a resource-limited setting.

What is Student Centred Learning?

Student centred learning emphasizes:

- Active engagement of learners in the learning process
- Encouraging inquiry, exploration, and problem-solving
- Fostering autonomy and responsibility among students
- Creating a collaborative classroom environment

Unlike traditional rote memorization, SCL invites students to connect new information with prior knowledge, work on projects, and participate in discussions. This method nurtures critical thinking skills and prepares learners for real-world challenges.

The Benefits of Student Centred Learning in Uganda

Implementing SCL in Uganda brings numerous advantages:

- Enhanced Engagement: Students are more motivated when they see relevance to their lives.
- Improved Critical Thinking: Learners analyze, evaluate, and create knowledge rather than just recall facts.
